SOCIAL MEDIA & BLOG POST PACK: TERMS OF USE

These stock images are intended for use on your social media and blog posts.

They are a collection of my favorite images that you, your friends, your mom, and your kitten Jack can use!

The only catch: You have to attribute it AND you can't charge for the image, nor use it commercially (as in: make money from it).

What do I mean by "you can't make money off the image? This:

- 🚫 NO you can't make and sell a t-shirt.
- 🚫 NO you can't put it on a mousepad and...
- 🚫 NO you can't print it to sell in any capacity or put it in a magazine or corporate website without paying me. Trust me, I will know if you do!

But social media posts, blogs posts, personal use? Fair game, with fair attribution.

What's fair attribution? This:

SOCIAL POSTS: Tag me and if you feel moved use the hashtag #yoursoulvoice. Find me on: Twitter: <https://twitter.com/karenhutton>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Karen.L.Hutton>

Google+: plus.google.com/+KarenHutton

Instagram: instagram.com/karenhutton/

BLOG POSTS: Post this text: Photo by Karen Hutton with a hyperlink to: <http://karenhuttonphotography.com> IN the post (at the bottom is fine) and the make sure the photo is clickable to that link as well (if it is possible for it to be clickable).

These photos are all Instagram-friendly square cropped, ready for you to put your latest and greatest quote or thoughts on them. Use them as photos for your blog posts. Let them help you expound upon your own vision, broaden your brand.

Use them liberally, but use them fairly. After all, fair use is kind use.

Love it, use it, attribute it, have fun with it!
